

You can find us on Chapel Street, just opposite the Liver Building. There has been worship on the site since the 13th century, and our ministry has evolved over the years as the shape of Liverpool has changed.

Today you are just as likely to find tourists in the church as city workers or local residents. We value our civic and maritime connections, and continue to have a place at the heart of the life of Liverpool.

2017 LENT LECTURES

A welcome from the Rector of Liverpool...

As soon as I arrived in Liverpool in 2014, people started asking me about the Lent Lectures. They have been taking place for a century and even the bombing of the Church in 1940 did not stop them continuing. Every year they are a bit different and designed to stimulate and entertain new audiences in different ways.

The 2017 series, begins, as usual, with the Bishop of Liverpool as he presides at an Ash Wednesday lunch time service for the city. By popular request, this has been shortened so that people can get back to their offices for the afternoon. The remaining Lectures in the season are in the evening and each event is finished within an hour (and that includes both questions to the speaker and also refreshments!)

The Lent Talks are a gift to the City of Liverpool: there is no charge and you do not have to book. Please come and be inspired!

Fr Crispin Parling
